

CALL FOR PAPERS

Special Issue of the North American Journal of Economics and Finance – A
Journal of Financial Economics Studies

International Finance in the aftermath of the 2008 Global Crisis

This special issue will focus on international financial markets, capital flows, financial and sovereign spreads, prudential regulation, and fiscal adjustment in the aftermath of the crisis. It will focus on the new patterns of capital flows, spreads and policies induced by the crisis.

Among the questions that may be addressed:

- The impact of prudential regulations on capital flows, sovereign spreads, and the economy.
- The impact of OECD policies on financial flows and the challenges facing emerging markets.
- Monetary, exchange rate, and reserve policy changes and their interactions with capital flows.
- The impacts of various types of capital flows on the local and regional economies during and after the crisis.
- The changing distribution of capital flows and their consequences.
- Government debt and its impact on financial flows and the real economy.

Special Issue Editors: Joshua Aizenman, Department of Economics, University of California at Santa Cruz, Email: jaizen@ucsc.edu and Ilan Noy, Department of Economics, University of Hawaii, Email: noy@hawaii.edu.

Electronic Submission Procedure: All manuscripts should be double-spaced and submitted in PDF format to jaizen@ucsc.edu and noy@hawaii.edu. Submission deadline is November 30, 2011. Each submission should include two PDF files of the manuscript, one with author information and the other without author information for a blind review process. Total size of a paper may not be more than 40 double-spaced pages. The submission fee is $80 U.S. Checks or money orders made payable to NAJEF should be sent to:

Joshua Aizenman,
Economics Department, E2
University of California at Santa Cruz,
1156 High St., Santa Cruz, CA 95064
(O) 831-459-4791, (FAX) 831-459-5077